SUBJECT: DEMARCHE RESPONSE: SUPPORTING ROMANIA'S CANDIDACY
FOR UN HUMAN RIGHTS COUNCIL

REF: STATE 120835

Classified By: DCM JERI GUTHRIE-CORN FOR REASONS 1.4 (B) and (D)

¶1. (C) Poloff delivered reftel demarche to Razvan Rotundu, Director of the Human Rights and Council of Europe Division at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Romania, on December 2. Rotundu stated Romania will run for the Human Rights Council in May 2010, competing against Georgia and the Czech Republic as representative for Eastern Europe. Romania already served on the Council from 2006 until 2008 and is well-qualified for the position with experienced staff, said Rotundu.

¶2. (C) Based on criteria outlined in reftel, Post believes Department should support Romania's candidacy. Romania has adequate resources both in Geneva and for frequent travel. Romania shares our concern that the Council has not focused sufficiently on country-specific issues, and Rotundu noted the exception of disproportionate, biased criticism of Israel. He also intimated that Romania would be willing to act independently from its regional group, commenting that such regional groupings are "rigid." There was "room for improvement" in the Council's performance, he said.

¶3. (C) Romania was supportive of our prior candidacy for the UN Human Rights Council and has contributed troops to Iraq and Afghanistan. Our reciprocal support on the HRC candidacy would signal to Romania our commitment to continuing and strengthening our strong partnership on a broad range of issues.
